Submission of Manuscripts

There is no submission fee.

REQUIRED

NOTE: Failure to comply with any of these guidelines may result in the JHR returning manuscripts to authors for reformatting.

- Five copies of each manuscript
- Single-sided
- Double-spaced
- One-inch or wider margins on all sides
- In 12-point type or larger including tables
- Abstract of no more than 100 words
- Author name(s), address(es), institutional affiliation(s), and any acknowledgments should appear only on the title page of the manuscript

In addition, manuscripts must be submitted as MS Word or .pdf files via email to the JHR's managing editor, Jan Levine Thal <thal@ssc.wisc.edu>. The paper must be a separate file from any cover letter, with no identifying information about the authors. These copies may be forwarded to reviewers. Both hard copies and electronic copies are required.

JHR* Policy on Replication and Data Availability

1. Manuscripts submitted to the JHR will be judged in part by whether they have reconciled their empirical results with already published work on the same topic.
2. Authors of accepted manuscripts will be asked to make their data available to other analysts from a date six months after JHR publication for a period of three years thereafter. Exemption from this requirement may be requested.
3. The JHR welcomes replication, fragility, and sensitivity studies of empirical work that has appeared in the JHR in the last five years or empirical work judged by the editors to be important to the fields covered by the JHR.
4. A more detailed statement is available from the Managing Editor, Social Science Building, University of Wisconsin, 1180 Observatory Drive, Madison, WI 53706 or through electronic mail at THAL@SSC.WISC.EDU
