Submission Requirements

The JHR requires that all authors submit all manuscripts online. Please submit online at: <http://jhr.msubmit.net>.

Do not send submissions directly to the Editor, Coeditors, Managing Editor, or Editorial Office. Failure to submit online will only delay consideration.

Please see the submission website for information about the submission fee.

Please note that the JHR rarely considers submissions that have more than 35 pages of text, excluding tables, figures, and references. Appendixes with additional material may be submitted for consideration by editors and reviewers. An informational website with tables of contents, abstracts, and appendixes: www.ssc.wisc.edu/jhr

If you have difficulty submitting online, please contact JHR Managing Editor, Lisa Al-Amoodi <lalamoodi@wisc.edu>

JHR Policy on Replication and Data Availability

1. Manuscripts submitted to the JHR will be judged in part by whether they have reconciled their empirical results with already published work on the same topic.
2. Authors of accepted manuscripts will be asked to make their data available to other analysts from a date six months after JHR publication for a period of three years thereafter. Exemption from this requirement may be requested.
3. The JHR will consider replication, fragility, and sensitivity studies of empirical work that has appeared in the JHR in the last five years or empirical work judged by the editors to be important to the fields covered by the JHR.
4. A more detailed statement is available from the Managing Editor, Social Science Building, University of Wisconsin, 1180 Observatory Drive, Madison, WI 53706; lalamoodi@wisc.edu
